

US-based NGO, offers a direct connection with a rural community.
 Providing high school, university, and medical students since 2008 with an authentic village life experience.

An African Community Service Adventure :: ETHIOPIA 2012

Create your own service project within our 3 sectors and beyond:

- EDUCATION Summer camp activities: sports, teaching, arts, computer training, cultural and ethnographic studies
- HEALTH Nutrition, water & sanitation, pre-medical global health & international public health
- LIVELIHOODS Small scale enterprise, coffee cooperatives, marketing, micro-finance., student banking, gift shop
- OTHER Biodiesel, solar, irrigation, rainwater catchment, biodiesel, agriculture, animal husbandry

Visit www.commonriver.org. Call Donna Sillan, Co-founder, at (415) 559-6527. or E-mail at dmsillan@comcast.net with your inquiry and interest and ideas. For those interested in Pre-Med or Public Health, a group of University of Texas Medical School students volunteer in late June- early July, which is a great time to see if you would like to pursue a career in int'l health. All volunteers receive a cultural education, a new perspective, a sense of global connection and good karma~ Guaranteed to be life-changing and to change the lives of the people you serve.